Parashat Shemot Shabbat Mevarchin

Haftarah	225	345	1146	1398		Shabbat ends 5.05pm

On this Shabbat we welcome and dedicate a Special Kiddush to the 46 new members and their families who have joined Western Marble Arch in the last 18 months.

We hope they will feel comfortable within our community, will participate in our Services and all our other activities, and that where and when appropriate their children will attend the Cheder, and in due course celebrate the appropriate Simchah of graduation, be it a Bar or Bat Mitzvah, and eventually provide us with the delightful task of erecting the Chupah.

In similar vein I encourage our older members to introduce themselves and make them all feel at Home. It is all the more important that we have new members to perform the very difficult task of replacing those who have passed away. This has been a particularly stressful period, as we have seen that several familiar and highly respected elder statesmen and women, people who have done so much for the shul, are no longer with us. Most of these have been Octogenarians and even Nonagenarians, which suggests that shul attendance is complemented by longevity.

As we enter the new decade, although much has been accomplished, and the various committees are planning fresh events, functions, reviews and renewals, they can only be successful if the response of members is shown by their attendance and support.

Most important, however, is your attendance for Services. We are probably the Inner London Synagogue with the most comprehensive programme of services seven days a week each day of the year, our rabbis and members are probably the most talented and versatile in conducting services, shiurim and all that is necessary to attract the high volume of very interesting visitors who enter our portals each week.

All that is needed is that you should be with us.

Shabbat Shalom

Film Evening This Monday, 11th January 2010

"Sometime in April"

The film depicts the attitudes and circumstances leading up to the outbreak of brutal violence, the intertwining stories of people struggling to survive the Rwandan genocide of 1994, and the aftermath as the people try to find justice and reconciliation. The genocide Museum in Kigali shows the horrors of this genocide, plus other ethnic cleansing atrocities that have gone before and after the Holocaust, 2010 being the 65th year since the liberation of Auschwitz. Come and watch this thought-provoking film while enjoying a cup of hot, homemade soup.
