The Archers

One of my highlights of 2009 was the founding of The Archers, WMA's social networking group for seniors. Lawrence Harding and I set out to create events which would be fun, bring our community together and create a little bit of magic in our Shul.

We have now put on three parties, each with a special guest speaker, music and bumper tea. Lady Jakobovits, Philip Rosenberg from our first sponsor, the Israel Discount Bank, and Lady Elaine Sacks have all entertained us. Marcel Stelman, too, has captivated us with amazing stories of his life in show business.

But above all, it is the music that has brought us together and to the dance floor, especially our friends from Nightingale.

It will soon be time for Purim once again, and The Archers will be marking this with another special tea, complete with humantashen. Our friends The Claudio Allodi trio will be playing klezmer and popular music. We hope, too, that Rabbi Lionel will again be in Purim costume and give us a few songs.

We also hope, too, to see more faces and would be grateful for your support. Word of The Archers is spreading, and we have been mentioned favorably in the Jewish Chronicle. So why not come along and bring a friend?

Lawrence and I hope that 2010 will see bigger and better events. None of the former though, would have been possible without the generosity and help of many people. The Israel Discount Bank generously sponsored our first event. The Board of Management, Linda Sharpe and Slava and his team have all worked hard to make these parties a success. In the office, Maureen, Rob and Ian have made sure that things have run smoothly. Oded and Joao too deserve a special mention. Our stylish artwork has been kindly and freely provided by Marc Harding.

So please mark Monday the 1st of March in your diaries and join us for Purim with The Archers.

Shabbat Shalom
Angela Wayne

A Tribute to the Memory of Trude and Simon Reiss zl

Dear Friends

The British Friends of Yad Vashem are holding a dinner at the Guildhall on the 13th April 2010 in order to raise funds for the International School for Holocaust Studies at Yad Vashem. The International School for Holocaust Studies is a teaching organisation which provides education programs for students.

The International School for Holocaust Studies is the only school of its kind in the world. Education Programs at the School are aimed at young students of all faiths who believe in the importance of learning about the Holocaust. My parents were life time supporters of Yad Vashem and participated in communicating the Legacy of the Holocaust to future generations. A tribute will be paid to my parents at the dinner.

There will be an appeal. I hope you will be able to join my family and I. We look forward to welcoming you.

With sincere appreciation for your support,

Yours

Caroline Esdaile
