Devarim

The Parsha of Devarim is always read on the Shabbat before the 9th of Av, the date on which both the first and second Temples were destroyed. These tragedies are reflected in the choice of the Haftarah during the three weeks prior to Tisha B'Av and indeed this week's Shabbat is known as "Chazon" - reflecting the vision of Isaiah, as per the Haftarah.

Sefer Devarim - known as Deuteronomy - used also to be called Mishne Torah -a recapitulation of the Torah - to reflect the fact that the generation now being addressed by Moshe, immediately prior to their entry into the Holy Land, had not been present in Sinai and had therefore not witnessed the Revelation.

The G-d proclaimed by Deuteronomy stands in a relation to Israel and humanity not merely of Judge or Ruler, but of Friend and Father. Demanding of us a whole-souled love and devotion to G-d which is to be accompanied by a large hearted benevolence towards man and indeed towards all of G-d's creations.

It is difficult to imagine any book that has influenced the way we live our lives to a greater degree than this Book of the Farewell Discourses of Moshe. Long, may it continue to do so.

Shabbat Shalom

Henry Knobil.
